A. Shuman

Died June 26, 1918

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Museum, held July 18, the following minute was adopted:

The Trustees of the Museum of Fine Arts desire to place upon the records of this meeting their sense of the loss which the Museum has sustained through the death of Abraham Shuman, their valued associate.

Mr. Shuman was elected a Trustee of this Board in January, 1907, and continued in that position until his death, in June, 1918. Never an active Trustee, he was none the less a deeply interested one. Throughout his years of service he brought to the Museum the stimulus of that generosity of nature and certitude of confidence which were always such marked characteristics of his fine citizenship; and at his death he gave to the Museum an important bequest of money and paintings.

The Trustees desire to express to the family of Mr. Shuman their appreciation of a life singularly imbued with a high civic spirit, and their sympathy for a loss which must be little lessened although coming in the fulness of years.
